B. LOWENSTEIN & BROS.

Yesterday morning two negroes, named Jones and Davis, came into the city and made complaint to the police that Mr. J. B. Stanley, a farmer living some seven miles out of town, on the Hernardo road, Bowers be elected to the position teacher in the city schools. Passed. sud weil known in this city, had "mur-dered" a negro named Henry Curtis, on his place, the night before. A warrant was taken out on their affidavit, and Mr. Miss Mary Boddie was elected a teacher in the city schools on the 29th June. Her name was left out of the printed list of teachers, published 3d July, through omission of the printer.

Mr. Kortrecht moved the following resolutions: Stanley was soon arrested and lodged in the station-house—he having come into the city of his own accord. At 10 o'clock he was carried before 'Squire Elliott, who, learning that no inquest had been held, stponed the examination of the affair til Tuesday morning next, The 'Squire mediately afterward went out to hold immediately afterward went out to hold the inquest, and at writing has not returned. We have, meanwhile, gleaned the following statement of the circumstances attending the shooting, and from the high character given Mr. Stanley, we have no doubt that it is perfectly reliable. Mr. Stanley states that he had been in the city during the day, and returned

He is evidently alive to the interest of the schools, laboring to bring them to a standard of perfection, and make power-ful and successful agents in the cause of education. y at 9 o'clock.

The rules of practices heretofore in force in the Law Court of Memphis will be indepted, with the following modifications:
Rule 9, as amended, will read as follows: "The regular sessions of the court furing the May term shall be from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. ouring the September and Junuary terms hereof, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m."

The school presented every indication of having been thoroughly trained and well disciplined, and the pupils of having made excellent progress in their studies. We were very much pleased with Mrs. Rankin's school. Test questions put at random were answered with ease and securing the September and Junuary terms hereof, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m." During the September and Junuary terms thereof, from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m."

Rule 2d will be suspended until the first regular term of the court.
Rule 16 is abolished.
Rule 20, as amended, shall read as follows: "But one counsel on each side of any cause shall address the jury or the court, unless by special permission of the court."

was manifest, and the best of order maintained.
The primary schools, taught by Mrs. Hilson, Mrs. Billings and Miss McAnally, appeared well, especially those taught by the last two. In Mrs. Billings' room some had made remarkable progress for their opportunities. The examination of Miss Smitzers' school was not satisfactory.

we were greatly pleased with the schools in the large room in the second story of the building, taught by Misses Laura and Clara Newkirk. The eager and lively interest of the children, the readiness and accuracy of the answers. readiness and accuracy of the answers, and the cheerful good order maintained throughout the room, were highly creditable to both teachers and pupils. We were particularly struck with the attachment and the interest of the teachers of these schools in their pupils. The most of them assured us that they had not met with the slightest difficulty in the discipline and management of their children, but that the latter were obedient, respectful and grateful in the highest all who hear and see them. The elegance and extreme heatness of their exterior is only surpassed by their durability, their delightful sweetness and clearness of tone, and that beautiful and perfect touch which has made them so justly famous all over the world. We had the picasure yesterday of a visit from Colonel L. W. Thomas, a Tennesseean from these parts, who for twenty years past has been a pioneer of civilization in the "fax, far West," a miner and stock drover in Arizona, Colorado and California. Colonel Thomas is here on a visit to his family and friends, and proposes soon to return to the stirring sences of life on the border. While here he called upon President Davis, who received him most cordially, and at his urgent series of the one to be desired him most cordially, and at his urgent selected when most cordially and the best proposed from its secretary of a visit from Colonel L. The moon set at about twelve o'clock night before last, and though the night was intensely dark there was no gas on any of the principal streets. This is a crying shame, and we again suggest to the Board of Alderman and Common Council some action in the matter.

Nothing of importance was done in the County Court yesterday, except the increase of the salaries of Judges Lee, Anderson, Bullock and Carmack, at the rate of $2000 per annum for past services. We descond that the same action will probably be taken in regard to the present incumbents.

The Supreme Court adjourned Wednesday, after a long and laborious session. The judges and the regiment of lawyers from a distance, says the Jackson Tribane, have all gone bone, leaving Mr. J. L. Brown, the excellent clerk, in sole possession. He thinks he will be able to hold the position until the arrival of reinforcements for the next campaign.
